I'm a female, Chihuahua, I was surrendered because a bigger dog kept attacking me.

You can call me a couch potato, until it comes to walk time, then I get all excited. I also like to hang out in the front yard when it is warm so I can watch the cats outside the gate. My main drawback is if you scare me, I will squeal like a pig! I like to nap in my foster dad's lap, not really into playing with other dogs. I did get adopted before but the other dog attacked me twice. I am a sweet girl, and love to sit near or on you. I am unsure of just about everything new. I will need someone who is patient. I have already learned how to walk with a leash. I love to sit outside and watch the outdoor cats.

I am current on all of my vaccinations and have been spayed and micro-chipped.

05/12/17 - Spayed & microchipped

07/20/18 - Rabies vaccination

07/21/18 - Combo vaccination
